

2010 WINTER WINE CLASS SERIES

Fairchild's Market

171 Eagle Rock Ave Roseland, NJ 973.226.0400

Join me for 2 new wine classes designed to enlighten and inspire both the novice and enthusiast. You will learn and enjoy in an interactive environment. Each of these 2 hour wine tasting classes will feature 7 memorable wines as well as a selection of specialty cheeses that highlight the wines.

Class 1: Friday, February 26, 2010 7-9pm: Spain Uncorked!

I will dedicate a class to the amazing and diverse wines from Spain. From Cava to bright, crisp whites to elegant Tempranillo to rich robust red blends, we will explore these wonderful wines and will see why Spain produces some of the best values as well as ageworthy wines anywhere.

Class 2: Friday, March 5, 2010 7-9pm: Great Syrah's of the World

The ultimate class for the Syrah lovers! After this class, you will be convinced that Syrah is the most versatile and expressive reds wines anywhere. I will explore and taste great Syrah from the top regions around the world: Napa, Sonoma Coast, Washington, Australia and Rhone Valley.

Cost per class: $60 per person Cost for 2 classes: $110 per person

Register 2 ways:

1. Visit our website: TheEducatedGrape.com; go to the Programs page
2. Mail check payable to The Educated Grape to 203 Main Street #259 Flemington, NJ 08822

Questions: Call George at 973.699.2199 or visit TheEducatedGrape.com

All wines will be available through the host wine shop, Fairchild's Market.