

2009 SUMMER WINE CLASS SERIES

Jake's Restaurant
252 Highway 202 South Flemington, NJ 908.806.3188

Join me for 2 wine classes designed to enlighten and inspire both the novice and enthusiast. You will learn and enjoy in an interactive environment. Each of these 2 hour wine tasting classes will feature 7 memorable wines as well as a selection of specialty hors d'oeuvres that highlight the wines.

Class 1: Wednesday, July 22, 2009 7-9pm:

Malbec Unleashed!

See for yourself why Malbec has become one of the most popular and appreciated red grape varieties in the world. This class will feature the finest expressions of this rich and fruit driven varietal in varying price points from Argentina as well as southern France.

Class 2: Tuesday, August 4, 7-9pm:

Discovering the Great Syrah's of the World

The ultimate class for the Syrah lovers! After this class, you will be convinced that Syrah is the most versatile and expressive reds wines anywhere. I will explore and taste great Syrah from the top regions around the world: Napa, Sonoma Coast, Washington, Australia and Rhone Valley.

Cost per class: $50 per person

Cost for 2 classes: $90 per person

Register 2 ways:

1. Visit our website: TheEducatedGrape.com; go to the Programs page
2. Mail check payable to The Educated Grape to 203 Main Street #259 Flemington, NJ 08822

Questions: Call George at 973.699.2199 or visit TheEducatedGrape.com

All wines will be available through the host wine shop, Central Liquors.