

2010 WINTER WINE CLASS SERIES

Jake's Restaurant

252 Highway 202 South Flemington, NJ 908.806.3188

Join me for 2 new wine classes designed to enlighten and inspire both the novice and enthusiast. You will learn and enjoy in an interactive environment. Each of these 2 hour wine tasting classes will feature 7 memorable wines as well as a selection of specialty hors d'oeuvres that highlight the wines.

Tuesday, March 16, 2010 7-9pm: Southern Hemisphere All Stars

In this first ever class, we will taste and explore the finest regions and wines that have elevated the stature of Australia, New Zealand, Chile, Argentina and South Africa around the world. This class will feature white and red wines, blends and singular varietals. I will present a few wines that represent the future greatness of some of these countries.

Tuesday, March 23, 2010 7-9pm: The Rhone Revival

For the first time, I will dedicate a class to the amazing wines from France's Rhone Valley. This is one of my favorite wine producing regions. I will explore the great Syrah based reds from the top villages in Northern Rhone as well as the red and white blends from Southern Rhone. You will also experience memorable wines from the newly released, highly accoladed 2007 vintage.

Cost per class: $55 per person Cost for 2 classes: $100 per person

Register 2 ways:

1. Visit our website: TheEducatedGrape.com; go to the Programs page
2. Mail check payable to The Educated Grape to 203 Main Street #259 Flemington, NJ 08822

Questions: Call George at 973.699.2199 or visit TheEducatedGrape.com

All wines will be available through the host wine shop, Central Liquors.